INDEX.

A.

Abbot, Mr, Speaker of the Commons, speech on Mr Madocks's motion against Mr Perceval and Lord Castlereagh, I. 245. On Mr Curwen's bill of reform, 274

Abensberg, battle of, I. 594

Abercrombie, Mr, moves for the orders sent out to Sir John Moore, I. 95.

Abercromby, Sir Ralph, monument erected to him, II. 79

Aberdeen, storm there, II. 312

Adair, Mr, his negociations with the Porte, I. 461, 463

Adam, Mr W. defends the Duke of York, I. 121. Examined respecting the Duke of York, 130. Interrogated by Colonel Wardle, 137. Letter to him, ib. His evidence commented on by Lord Folkestone, 192

Adam, J. his generous conduct to his creditors, II. 155

Adelsparre, General, excites a mutiny amongst the Swedish troops, I. 428.

Africaine, L', case of the deserters from, II. 275

African Institution, report of, II. 173

Ainsley, G. escapes, II. 23,

Alache, Count de, conducts a Spanish corps to the Duke del Infantado, I. 477

Albergaria Nova, action there, I. 705

Albuquerque, Duke de, his successes against the French, I. 554, 557. His military abilities, 717. His success, 722. Appointed to command in Estremadura, 757

Alcedo, Don A. surrenders Coruna to the French, I. 492

Aldercreutz, General, seizes the king of Sweden, I. 430

Alexander, Emperor of Russia, negociates with Sweden, I. 441. His reply to Prince Kourakin, II. 127. Proclamation, 271

Alexandre, M. discovery for purifying water, II. 414

Algiers, revolution there, II. 23

Althorpe, Lord, his amendment on the question of the Duke of York's conduct negatived, I. 224

Alvarez, Don M. defends Gerona, I. 769. Sent to Figueras, 785

Am Ende, General, enters Saxony, I. 623

America, Lord Grenville's sentiments on our policy towards that country, I. 8. Disputes with England, 403. The northern states favourable to England, 411. Negociations respecting the Chesapeake, 413. Mr Jackson sent there, 417. Debates in Congress, II. 29. Breaches of the embargo act, 61. Election of the president, ib. Commercial regulations respecting the trade between England and America, 22. State of the commerce, 163, 170. The president refuses to recognize Ferdinand, iv. 298

Amphitrite, French frigate, gets into Martinique, II. 60.

Anderson, Mr, discovery of painting linen cloth, II. 443

Anderson, ———, committed for child murder, II. 140

Andreossy, General, directs the bombardment of Vienna, i. 602

Anholt taken by the English, II. 153

Annual Review, observations on, II. 579

Antrim, escape of some prisoners there, II. 158
Antwerp fortified by Bernadotte, I. 679
Archangel, ships taken there, II. 236
Archer, Mr, his character as an actor, II. 389
Areizoga, Don J. C. commands the Spanish army, I. 763. Defeated, 765
Armstrong, J. convicted of robbery, II. 309
Armstrong, General, negociation with the French government, I. 423
Army, reformation in, I. 10. Number of, II. 78. General orders respecting appointments on the staff, 305. Humanity of the soldiers, 633
Arnold, Mr, manager at the Lyceum, II. 354
Aspern, battle of, I. 608
Assembly, General, meet at Edinburgh, II. 140; dissolved, 150
Asturias, the junta there dissolved, I. 709
Auckland, Lord, objects to acknowledging Ferdinand IV. I. 23. Bill on divorces, 358
Auco, Lorenzo, his heroism at Gerona, I. 771
Augereau, Marshal, his conduct at Gerona, I. 786
Augustenburg, Prince of, chosen crown prince of Sweden, I. 440. His sudden death, 445
Avintas, action of, I. 706
Austria, situation of before the war, I. 575. Preparations for war, 578. State of the army, 583. Manifesto of the emperor, 584. Peace with France, 654, xxv. State of the army, II. 87. Austrian prisoners employed, 159. Armistice, 200. Peace, 292. General orders of the emperor, 304, 305
Ayr, thunder storm there, II. 141. Earthquake, 199

B.

Bacquart, General, takes the village of Aspern, I. 610
Bagrathion, Prince, defeats the Turks, I. 467. Defeated at Silistria, 468
Bailey, Captain, Cataro given up to him by the Austrians, I. 454
Baillie, Miss, observations on her tragedies, II. 397
Baird, Sir David, difficulties in joining Sir J. Moore, I. 65
Baireuth taken by the Austrians, I. 625
Balderston, Mrs, pension granted to her, II. 63
Ballads, Old, Shenstone's observations on, II. 551
Balman, Mr, attempt to liberate La Fayette, II. 514
Baltic fleet dispersed, II. 269. Arrive, 295
Bank of England, number of notes, II. 124. Subscription to the patriotic fund, 250. Meeting of directors, 267
Bankes, Mr, proposes an amendment on the charges against the Duke of York, I. 183, 184
Barcelona relieved by the French, I. 503
Barclay, Captain, his pedestrian exploit, II. 181. Returns from Walcheren, 266
Barham, Mr, objects to the questions put to Miss Taylor, I. 169.
Baronets, creation of, II. 252
Barquier, General, surrenders St Domingo, I. 395
Barry, Mr, objects to the bounty on Irish flax seed, I. 319
Baseley, Mr, transactions to obtain a deanery for him, I. 150, 151; II. 406, 407
Basque Roads, attack on the French fleet lying there, I. 367; II. 82. Account of the action, 115. Trial of the French officers, 272
Bateman, Mary, committed for trial, II. 31. Condemned, 88
Bath, floods there, II. 48, 58. Heavy fall of snow, 120
Bathz, Fort, taken by the English, I. 668. Abandoned, 681
Bathurst, Mr, speech on the charges against the Duke of York, I. 182. His amendment, 183. Negatived, 224. Speech on Mr Madocks' motion against Lord Castlereagh and Mr Perceval, 245
Bavaria ravaged by the Tyrolese, I. 646, 656
Beck, Mrs, her numerous progeny, II. 11
Beckwith, General, takes Martinique, I. 381
Bedford, Duke of, statue erected to his memory, II. 210
Belem, affray there, II. 292
Belfast, meeting to thank Colonel Wardle, II. 133. A ship lost there, 265

Bell-rock Lighthouse, description of, II. 542
Berchtold, Count Leopold, his death, I. 631
Beresford, Marshal, arrives in Portugal, I. 556. Organizes the Portugueze army, 702. His proclamation, 703. Takes possession of the bridge of Amarante, 708. Observations on his conduct, II. 635
Berkshire, meeting of freeholders, II. 114
Bernadotte takes the command at Antwerp, I. 679
Berry, Mr, his character as an actor, II. 389
Berwick, bill of mortality, II. 51
Bessieres, Marshal, defeats the Austrian cavalry, I. 595
Betty, the young Roscius, enters at Cambridge, II. 95
Births during the year, II. 320
Black, John, convicted of stealing, II. 99
Blake, General, takes the command of Reding's army, I. 553. Assists Gerona, 775. Letter to the junta, II. 274
Blavier, M. discovery of a substitute for emery, II. 450
Bligh, Captain, burns two French ships in Basque Roads, II. 374
Board of Control, II. 290
Bolton, Captain, his improvement of jury-masts, II. 447
Bosnia, insurrection there quelled, I. 467
Boston, thunder storm there, II. 204
Botany, new discoveries in, II. 437
Boulogne, the flotilla comes out of the harbour, II. 184
Bowle, Lieutenant, killed in a duel, II. 247
Bowles, Mr, a Dutch commissioner, his conduct canvassed, I. 347, 348
Boxing, observations on, II. 19
Bozzini, M. discovery for throwing light into the body, II. 453
Brady, General, Austrian governor of Cataro, delivers it up to the Russians, I. 454
Braga, address of the inhabitants to Soult, I. 573
Brand, Mr, objects to the questions to Miss Taylor, I. 149
Brande, Mr, his discoveries in che[mistry], II. 434
Brandon, Mr, boxkeeper, discharged, II. 375, 376
Brazils, Prince of the, loan for him, I. 302
Brest squadron gets out, I. 364. Releases the L'Orient squadron, 365. Part of it destroyed, 373, 376
Brewster, Dr, discovery for viewing subjects under water, II. 445
Bridgewater, Earl of, moves the address on the king's speech, I. 2
Bristol, fire there, II. 305
Britain's Jubilee, a musical farce, at the Lyceum, II. 356
Britannia, accident on board the ship, II. 102
British Institution, prizes distributed, II. 51
Broad, Mr, discovery of a new guage, II. 451
Brooke, Lieut.-Col. procures an exchange with Lieut.-Colonel Knight from Mrs Clarke, I. 118. His case stated, 127
Brownrigg, General, represents the impracticability of taking Antwerp, I. 679
Brunswick, address of the inhabitants to their duke, I. 634
Brunswick, Duke of, raises a body of troops, I. 621. Surprises Zittau, 622. Retreats into Franconia, 624. Insurrection of his officers, 633. Defeats the Saxons and Westphalians at Leipzig, ib. Retreats to Heligoland, 634—638. Arrives in England, II. 246
Brunswick man of war, her shattered condition, II. 73
Buchanan, translation of his Ode to May, II. 651.
Buckinghamshire, Earl of, speech on Sir J. Cradock's removal from the command of [Lisbon], I. 695. Moves for the instructions to Sir Hew Dalrymple, 696, 696
Buddle, Mr, drowned, II. 170
Bulle[tins], manner of conveying them to [England], II. 1
B[onaparte], Lord Grey's eulogy on his military character, I. 89. Encourages the Serviats, 450. Address of the inhabitants of Madrid to him, and his answer, 528. Proceeds against Sir John Moore, 530. Returns to Madrid, 534. Conference with Coun Metternich, 578. Situation of his a mies in Germany, 593. Address to his soldiers, 594. Speech to the Bavarians and Wirtembergers, 595. His proclamation at Ratisbon, 596. Arrives before Vienna, 599. Proclamation, 602. Crosses the Danube, 607. His exertions to repair the defeat at Aspern, 626. Proclamation against the Marquis of Chastellar, 644, 645. Excommunicated by the pope, 653. Stipulation to marry the daughter of the Emperor of Austria, 656. Letter to the Emperor Alexander, 792. Address to the legislative body, 793. His divorce, 795, 797. Proclamations at Madrid, II. 20, 21. Decree respecting Frenchmen in the service of nations at war with him, 128. Proclamation at Ulm, 139. At Vienna to the Hungarians, 160. Italian pun on his name, 318. Remarks on his campaigns, 526. Observations on his character, 632

Burdett, Sir Francis, defends General Matthew's speech on the Catholics, I. 31. Speaks on Spanish affairs, 32. Seconds Colonel Wardle's motion, 120. 121. Speaks against intimidating Col. Wardle, 141. Opinion on the question, 189, 190. General speech, 201. Moves an inquiry respecting Col. Gordon's building near Chelsea hospital, 231, 232, 233. Speech on Lord Castlereagh's negociation for a seat in the house, 240. Speech at the Crown and Anchor, 241. Speaks against Mr Curwen's bill of reform, 257, 258, 278. Motion for parliamentary reform, 282. Anniversary dinner on his election at Westminster, II. 149

Burgos taken by the French, I. 478

Burita, Countess of, forms a body of women at Zaragoza, I. 510

Burney, Mr, discovery in navigation, II. 452

Burrard, Sir Harry, praised by Lord Moira, I. 34. His transactions with the Duke of York respecting Colonel Shaw, 158, 159. His son drowned, II. 273

Burton, Mr, speech on the charges against the Duke of York, I. 174

Bushnall, trial of, II. 100

C.

Cabul, kingdom of, mission sent there, II. 258

Cadiz, proceedings there, I. 502. Negociations respecting its being garrisoned by British troops, 541, 542. Disturbances in the city, 548. Contributions arrive from America, 552. Some Frenchmen murdered there, II. 27. Articles received there from England, 173

Cadogan, Capt. tried by a court martial, and acquitted, II. 112. Duel with Lord Paget, 151

Calva, Don L. appointed to communicate with Lord Wellington, I. 752

Cameron, Col. falls at Fuentes d'Onoro, II. 634

Campbell, Alexander, tried for robbery, II. 313

Canada, good effects of the orders of council with respect to that country, I. 411

Canning, Mr, speech on the address, I. 21. On the French overtures of peace, 24. Observations on Sir F. Burdett, 33. Speech on the convention of Cintra, 51. Speech on Sir J. Moore's campaign, 72. Defends Mr Frere, 94. Speech on the same campaign, 99. Observations on it, ib. Speaks in favour of a committee of the whole house on Col. Wardle's motion, 124. Objects to Col. Wardle's delay in bringing forward his witnesses, 140. Answer to Mr W. Smith, 141. Accuses Mr Whitbread of secretly suborning Colonel Wardle, 142. General speech on the motion, 218. Charge against Lord Folkestone, 221. Mr Lyttleton's observations on this, 222. Reprehends the meeting of general officers, 223. Objects to an inquiry into the disposal of offices, 237. Moves a resolution on Lord Castlereagh's negociating for a seat in the house, 240. Defends Mr Perceval against Mr Madocks, 248. Speech on the promise of seats in the House, 277. Objects to Mr Whitbread's motion against placemen sitting in the House, 351. Speech on the treaty with Spain, 491. Duel with Lord Castlereagh, 788. Resigns, 790, II. 261

Cape of Good Hope, accident there, II. 179
Caraffa, General, killed at Cadiz, I. 550.
Carey, Mrs, her influence with the Duke of York, I. 120
Carlisle, Earl of, action against the corporation of Morpeth, II. 223.
Carmichael, Gen. takes St. Domingo, I. 393, 395.
Carolina, La, central junta formed there, I. 481
Carrara, Gen. marches against Santiago, I. 711
Carter, S. promoted by the Duke of York, I. 159
Cartoajal, Count de, commands a Spanish corps, I. 477
Castanos, Gen. situation of his army after the battle of Tudela, I. 471. Marches to Siguenza, 472
Castlereagh, Lord, speech on the address, I. 16. Reply to Lord Henry Petty on the Cintra convention, 40. Moves for a monument to Sir J. Moore, 59. Speech on his last dispatch, 61. Defends the conduct of ministers during Sir J. Moore's campaign, 68, 69. Directions to Sir J. Moore, 87. Refuses the production of the orders sent out to that general, 95. Defends the campaign, 99. Answer to Mr Whitbread on Col. Wardle's motion, 125. Transaction with Lord Clancarty respecting the sale of a seat in the House, 239. Mr Madocks' motion against him, 244. His bill for recruiting from the militia, 308. Speech on the Irish inland navigation bill, 327. Duel with Mr Canning, 788. Resigns, 790, II. 261
Cassel taken by the French, I. 619.
Catalani, Madam, action against her, II. 115
Catalonia, not succoured by the English, I. 78. State of the war there, 504. State of the country, 554
Cattaro, description of, I. 452. Taken by the Russians, 454
Cayenne taken by the Portugueze and English, I. 396—399, II. 94
Cerigo fortified by the French, I. 465. Taken by the English, 788, II. 307
Cevallos, Don P. arrives in England, II. 69. His audience, 81
Chalot, Governor of Vigo, surrenders, I. 569
Champagny, M. letter to Buonaparte, II. 126
Charles I. celebration of the anniversary of his death, II. 47
Charles XIII. King of Sweden, I. 496
Charles, Archduke, addresses the army, I. 584, 589. Enters Vienna, 591. His letter to the King of Bavaria, 592. Surprises the French at Ratisbon, 595. Defeated at Echmuhl, 596. Requests an armistice, 605. Arrives on the left bank of the Danube, 606. Situation of his army, 607. Gains the battle, 613, 614. Letter to him from the Emperor, 615. His preparations for the battle of Wagram, 627. Concludes an armistice, 631. Speech to the Emperor, II. 164
Charlotte, Queen, celebration of her birth day, II. 33, 141.
Chastellar, Marquis of, marches to the support of the Tyrolese, I. 644. Proclamation of Buonaparte against him, 644, 645
Charmilly, Col. attacked by Lord Grey, I. 88. Defended by Mr Canning, 102. Publishes a vindication of his conduct, 103
Chatham, Earl of, commands the expedition to Walcheren, I. 600. Obtains the approbation of the king, 671. Removes his head-quarters to Tergoes, 678. Returns to England, 682. Leaves London, II. 190. His dispatches from Middleburgh, 225—235. Proclamation to his troops, 255
Chaves taken by Soult, I. 563, 564.
Chesapeak, negociations respecting, I. 412, 413
Chladni, invents a musical instrument, II. 450
Cintra, convention of, disapproved in the king's speech, I. 1. Reprobated by Earl St Vincent, 3. By Lord Grenville, 5. By Lord Moira, 12. By Mr Ponsonby, 14. Lord H. Petty's motion on the subject, 34. Rejected, 52. List of the minority, ib. Blamed by ministers themselves, 54. Report of the board of inquiry, II. 2. Communication to Sir H. Dalrymple, 35.
Circassians, revolt against the Turks, I. 468

Circassian Bride, a new opera, II. 352
Ciudad Rodrigo provisioned for a siege, I. 758
Clancarty, Lord, his cattle show, II. 270
Claparede, General, his situation at Ems, I. 598
Claretona, Donna Susan, her heroism, II. 274
Clarissa lugger taken, II. 40
Clarke, Mrs, her interference with the army, I. 117. Examined on Col. Brooke's exchange, 128. Annuity granted to her by the Duke of York, 135. Receives money from Colonel French and Captain Sandon, 143. Pleads weariness to excuse her giving her evidence on the case the same night, 144. Examined at the next meeting of the House, 145. Her establishment at Gloucester Place, 147, 148. Replies to Mr Croker, 156, 157. Evidence respecting Samuel Carter, 159. Calls herself Mrs Dowler, 163. Evidence respecting Captain Sandon, 164, 165. Quarrel with Colonel Wardle, 297. Accuses the Duke of Kent, ib. Prints her Memoirs, ib. The publication stopped, 298. Action against Colonel Wardle, ib. Account of her and her husband, II. 65. Colonel Wardle's trial against her, 263, 310
Clarkson, his indefatigable exertions against the slave trade, I. 100.
Clavering, General, begs Mrs Clarke not to bring him forward on the charges against the Duke of York, I. 147. Letter to the attorney-general, 151. Examined, 152. His testimony confuted, 156. Transactions with Mrs Clarke, 163. Examined again, 167. Committed to prison, 226
Clifford, Mr, his action against Mr Brandon, II. 369. Action against him and others for riots in Covent-Garden theatre, ib.
Cobbett, Mr, opinion on the campaigns in Spain, I. 57. Observations on Major Hogan's pamphlet, 115; on the treaty with Spain, 492. Speech at the Hampshire meeting, II. 118. Trial for oppression, 197.
Cockburn, Capt. his opinion against retaining Flushing, I. 690
Coke, Mr, speech on the charges against the Duke of York, I. 191
Colburne, Mr, speech on Sir J. Moore's campaign, I. 72.
Coldbath-fields, state of the prison, I. 357
Collingwood, Lord, destroys a convoy from Toulon, I. 787, II. 153, 299
Colman, Mr, address written by him on opening Covent-Garden theatre, II. 362. Action brought to remove him from the management of the Hay-Market theatre, 379
Colson, Miss, wounded by Mr Elliston, II. 259
Columbine, brig, mutiny on board, II. 288
Connor, Mary, convicted of pretending magic, II. 293
Cochrane, Lord, speech at the Crown and Anchor, I. 244. Appointed to command the fire-ships in the Basque Roads, 368. Effect of them, 370, 371. Runs ashore several of the enemy's vessels, 373. His humanity, 374. Sent for on board Lord Gambier's ship, 375. Made Knight of the Bath, 376. Dissatisfied with the result, 377. His evidence at the trial of Lord Gambier, 377, 378. His character, ib. Defends Rosas, 505, 506. His farther services, 507. His exploits in Languedoc, II. 15, and at Rosas, 47. Gazette account of his action in Basque Roads, 115. Letter from Mr Wellesley Pole, 203. Answer, 204
Cochrane, Sir Alexander, blockades the squadron at the Saints, I. 385. Takes two line-of-battle ships, 386
Constantine, Grand Duke, conspiracy against him, I. 447
Constantinople blockaded by the Russian fleet, I. 447. Insurrection there, 461
Cook, J. drowned, II. 22
Cooper, Mary, convicted of murder, II. 257
Coote, Sir Eyre, left to command at Flushing, I. 682
Coruna, vote of thanks on the battle of, I. 58. Surrendered to the French, 493. French account of the battle, 494, II. 56, 58, 66. Evacuated by Ney, I. 712, II. 180. Particulars respecting the battle, 38, 39, 40, 41. Number of troops embarked there, 43

Cow-pox, report upon, II. 51
Covent-Garden theatre burnt down, I. 53. Foundation of the new theatre laid, II. 7. The company perform at the Hay-Market, 356. The new theatre opened, 359. Address to the public on raising the prices, 360. O. P. riots, 361. Committee appointed to examine the accounts, 365; their report, 367. Observations on the riots, 376
Cradock, Sir J. appointed governor of Gibraltar, I. 694
Crail, storm of snow there, II. 54
Crawford, General, joins Lord Wellington, I. 728
Creevey, Mr, speaks on the bill to prevent the sale of offices, I. 237; on the board of controul, 338
Crescent frigate lost, II. 31
Criticism, present state of, II. 556
Croker, Mr, answers Mr Whitbread on the overtures for peace, I. 30. Adverts to the Irish Catholics, ib. Examines Mrs Clarke on Col. French's levy, 146; on her intercourse with Mr Dowler, 156. Speech on the general question, 186. Answers Sir F. Burdett's speech, 190. Defends the appointment of B. Hill in Ireland, 322. Speech on the Irish tithes, 336
Cromwell, a house of his at Whitehall, II. 52
Crossand, Baron, his advice to Areizoga, I. 764
Cuba, the French expelled, I. 390. Their treatment, II. 155
Cuesta, General, appointed to the command of the army of Estremadura, I. 489. His operations in Estremadura, 535. Negociates with Mr Frere, 544, 545. Defeated at Medellin, 556. Collects his troops, 557. His character as a general, 704. State of his army, 717. Refuses to fight on a Sunday, 719. His conduct after the battle of Talavera, 730. Defeated by Mortier, 733. Removed from the command, 749.
Cumberland, R. observations on his London Review, II. 579
Cumberland, Duchess of, her death, II. 87
Cumby, Captain, blockades St Domingo, I. 393
Curwen, Mr, his bill of reform, I. 249. Speaks on popular meetings, 252. Defends his bill, 279. His discoveries in botany, II. 208
Cuxhaven stormed by the English, I. 632
Czerni, George, his revolt against the Turks, I. 450

D.

Dalecarlia, insurrection there, II. 118
Dalmatia, insurrection there, I. 651
Dalrymple, Sir Hew, blamed for not transmitting the convention of Cintra sooner, I. 34. Communications to him from the king, II. 35
Dalton, Mr, his discoveries in chemistry, II. 433
Danube, bridges thrown across the river, I. 607. Destroyed, 612
Darnley, Lord, moves for the correspondence between Sir J. Moore and Mr Frere, I. 81. Moves for the recal of the latter, 86, 93
Davison, Alexander, judgement on, II. 121
Davison, Captain J. convicted of theft, II. 239
Davy, Mr, his discoveries in chemistry, II. 422, &c.
Day after the Wedding, a new farce, II. 383
Deal, effects of a storm there, II. 46
Deaths, list of, II. 320
D'Eben, Baron, defends Braga, I. 565
Debt, national, redemption of, II. 285
Defiance, man of war, forces three French frigates ashore, I. 365
Degen, M. discovery of rising in the air, II. 453
Denmark, feelings of the people respecting England and France, I. 425. Expedition prepared against Sweden, 426. Peace with that power, 443. Vessels taken by the English, 444
Deserter, curious case of one, II. 318
Dick, Mr, purchases a seat in parliament, and resigns it, I. 246
Dillon, Colonel, defends the proclamation issued in Martinique, I. 383
Dodd, Major, accused by Mrs Clarke, I. 299

Doe, H. trial for inhumanity, II. 250
Dog, extraordinary death of one, II. 251
Donovan, Mr, his transactions with Mrs Clarke, I. 117. Examined, 150. His committal proposed, 152
Dorenberg, Colonel Von, his insurrection in Hesse, I. 618. Escapes, 620
Doveton, Colonel, defeats Bungas Cawn, II. 196
Dowler, Mr, his evidence respecting Captain Sandon and Colonel French, I. 144, 145. Intercourse with Mrs Clarke, 156, 163
Doyle, General, his exploits in Catalonia, II. 62
Druid frigate captures a French brig of war, II. 305
Drury-Lane theatre burnt, I. 76, II. 77, 352. Meeting of the performers, 350. They perform at the Opera-house, 353
Duane, W. an American journalist, account of him, I. 417
Dublin, embargo laid there, II. 196. Celebration of the jubilee, 278, 282
Dubutat, M. discovery for evaporating water in brine springs, II. 448
Duckworth, Sir J. sails in pursuit of the Brest squadron, I. 364
Duels, political, II. 267
Duff, Mr, evidence against the Duke of York, I. 162
Duiveland, isle of, capitulates to the English, I. 678
Dundas, Sir David, appointed commander-in-chief, I. 226, II. 93
Dundas, Mr, motion for a renewal of the East India committee, I. 338. Appointed secretary for Ireland, II. 112
Dupont, General, shot, II. 108
Duroc, General, arrives at Stockholm, I. 432
Duroshel, General, taken prisoner at Aspern, I. 611
Dutch prizes, commissioners for, motion on the subject, I. 345

E.

Eagles, a flight of in Sussex, II. 318
Earthquakes, II. 43, 44, 199
East India Company, affairs of the, I. 338. Abuses in the appointment of cadets and writers, 341. Meetings of the Directors, II. 81, 109. Intelligence from there, 96. Election of Directors, 110
Echmuhl, battle of, I. 596
Eden, Mr, motion on Spanish affairs, I. 94
Edinburgh, celebration of new-year's day, II. 1. Great cold there, 54. Prizes at Divinity Hall, 66. Mad dogs in the neighbourhood, 81. Proceedings in the Court of Session, 99. Celebration of the King's Birth-day, 158. Foundation of the Lunatic Asylum laid, 161. Chamber of Commerce, 207. Competition of pipers, 207. Thunder storm, ib. College of Surgeons, 258. Celebration of the jubilee, 281. Address of the Africans resident there to the king, 283. Edinburgh theatre, history of during the year, 385. Defects of the orchestra, 401. Manner of educating divines at the university, 416. Meteorological journal kept at Edinburgh, 468; quantity of rain, 510
Edinburgh Bible society, meeting of, II. 274. Office bearers, 301
Edinburgh Review, strictures on, II. 561
Edwin, Mrs, her appearance at the Lyceum, II. 355
Egerton, Mr, his appearance at Covent-Garden theatre, II. 373
Eguia, D. Francisco, made commander of Cuesta's army, I. 751
Eldon, Lord Chancellor, Col. Wardle's accusation against him, I. 123
Eliston, Mr, trial for shooting Miss Colson, II. 259
Elliot, Miss, killed, II. 250
Elliston, Mr, speaks an address on the burning of Drury-Lane theatre, II. 354
Elmes, Mr, discovery of a portable bridge, II. 442
Elopements, II. 31, 32, 87, 114, 289
Elphingstone, Hon. Mr, sent ambassador to Cabul, II. 258
Ely, inundation in the isle of, II. 59
Emery, Mr, performances at Edinburgh, II. 401
Erskine, Lord, speech on Sir J. Moore's campaign, I. 57. Bill against cruelty to animals, 359 Erskine, Mr, negociations with the American government, I. 413. Exceeds his instructions, 414, 415. Recalled 417

Esling, the village attacked by the Austrians, I. 610, 613
Espeleta leads the patriots in Catalonia, I. 74
Eugene, Viceroy of Italy, pursues the Archduke John, I. 626, 627. Joins Buonaparte, 627. Speech on Buonaparte's divorce, 797

F.

Fabroni, discovery for making a colour from aloe leaves, II. 453
Fairfax, Mr, letter on the explosion of the fire-ships in Basque Roads, I. 370
Fairlop fair, account of, II. 179
Family Legend, a new tragedy by Miss Baillie, acted at Edinburgh, II. 395
Farey, Mr, discovery of a new blow-pipe, II. 447
Fashions in January, II. 55
Fayette, La, account of his attempt to escape from Olmutz, II. 514. Letter to Mr Huger, 523
Ferdinand, Archduke, successful in Poland, I. 603
Ferguson, General, speech on the convention of Cintra, I. 52. Speech against the Duke of York, 221
Ferguson, R. convicted of forgery, II. 273
Ferrand, General, commander in St Domingo, I. 389. Defeated, and kills himself, 391
Ferrol, taken by the French, I. 494, 495, II. 83. Evacuated, I. 712, II. 180. List of ships there, 266
Fife, Joseph, kills himself, II. 162
Finances, state of, I. i. II. 172
Finland, state of the country, I. 427. Ceded to Russia, 442
Finnerty, Mr, prosecution against him and others on account of Major Hogan's pamphlet, I. 115
Fitzwilliam, Earl, speaks on the volunteering from the militia, I. 309
Floods in different parts of England, II. 48, 49
Florida Blanca, Count, at the head of the Murcian army, I. 74
Flushing besieged, I. 667. Situation of the town, 669. Surrenders, 675. Evacuated by the English, 692.
Folkestone, Lord, objects to a committee of the whole House on Col. Wardle's motion, I. 124. Objects to the questions put to Miss Taylor, 149. Exposes a case of corruption in which the Duke of York was implicated, 162. Col. Wardle's obligations to him, 173. Speech on the charges, 191. Reply to Mr Canning on his family, 221. Mr Lyttleton's allusion to the same, 222. Moves for a committee to inquire into abuses in the disposal of offices, 234. Speaks on the bill to prevent the sale of offices, 236
Fort Bourbon surrenders, II. 110
Foster, Mr, motion on Irish flax-seed, I. 319. His malt and spirit bill, 320. Defends the appointment of B. Hill in Ireland, 322. Speaks on the Irish revenue regulation bill, 323. Brings forward the budget, 326. Bill for draining the bogs, 328
Foundling of the Forest, a new play, II. 382. Acted at Edinburgh, 392
Foveaux, Lieut.-governor of New South Wales, II. 104
Fox, Mr, celebration of his birth-day at Edinburgh, II. 46
Franconi, M. discovery of a new travelling carriage, II. 454
Frankfort, proclamation there, I. 650
France endeavours to embroil America with England, I. 424. State of the empire, 794. Requisitions for the army, II. 43
Franceschi, Gen. enters Santiago, I. 496. Taken prisoner by the Spaniards, 713
Francis II. Emperor of Austria, letter to the Archduke Charles, I. 615. Proclamation, II. 128
Frederick William III. letter to the magistrates of Berlin, II. 43
Frederick II. his system of tactics, II. 529
Freire, Gen. put to death, I. 564
French, Colonel, his transactions with Mrs Clarke, I. 119, 143
French, Mr, objects to Mr Foster's distillery bill, I. 322
French eagles taken at Coruna, II. 63
French order of battle, observations on, II. 526

French prisoners, number of, II. 251
Frere, Mr H. dispatches sent to him, I. 72. Accused of having misled Sir J. Moore, 80. His correspondence with Sir J. Moore laid before Parliament, 86. Defended by Lord Liverpool, 91, 93. Accused by Lord Temple, 97, 98. Defended by Mr Canning, 100. Observations on his conduct, 105. Negociates for the admission of British troops into Spain, 540. Wishes Albuquerque to command, 717. His negociations with the junta, 747, 751. Dispatches received from him, II. 64
Frogmore, fete at the jubilee, II. 279.
Fuentes d'Honoro, battle of, II. 634
Fuller, Mr, speech on Mr Curwen's bill of reform, I. 259
Furieuse frigate taken, II. 260.
Furnass, discovery of an air-tight hinge, II. 455

G.

Galaz, the Russians cross the Danube there, I. 466
Galicia, state of the war there, I. 561
Gallitzin, Prince, enters Austrian Poland, I. 615.
Galluzo commands the Estremaduran army, I. 486; retreats, 488
Galston, fire there, II. 289
Gambier, Lord, sails in pursuit of the French fleet, I. 366. Brings Admiral Harvey before a court-martial, 368. His irresolution, 375. Demands a court-martial, 377. Acquitted, 378. Letters to the Admiralty, II. 144, 146. His trial, 202, 210. Sentence, 221.
Game Chicken, a boxer, his death, II. 127
Garay, Don Martin, negociates with Mr Frere, I. 545
Gardner, Lord, his death, II. 18
Garnerin, his aeronautic voyage, II. 266
Genius and the Bayadere, a poem translated from the German, II. 647
George III. celebration of his birth-day at London, II. 155. And Edinburgh 158. His jubilee celebrated, 276. Address on the occasion, 287
Germany, state of, I. 590
Gerona, siege of, I. 768. State of the city, 783. Capitulates, 785
Gibbs, Sir Vicary, speaks on Mrs Clarke's evidence, I. 136. Wishes to ask Miss Taylor respecting her private affairs, 149
Gibson, Mrs, murders her children, II. 111
Giddy, Mr, speech on Mr Curwen's bill, I. 278
Giles, Mr, speaks on the system of recruiting, I. 309
Giles ——, elopes with Miss Nicholson, II. 289
Gladstanes, Mr, discovery in thrashing mills, II. 448
Glasgow, a meteor seen there, II. 224
Glasse, Mr, transactions to obtain a deanery for him, I. 150
Gleizsor, a Pole in the service of the Turks, I. 468
Glenfinlas, Poetical Fragment written there, II. 645
Goethe, Von, translation of his Genius and the Bayadere, II. 647
Gold seized on board the Hope, II. 224
Gonzalez, D. Bernardo, surprises some French in Galicia, I. 562
Gordon, Col. examined respecting Col. Brooke's exchange with Col. Knight, I. 132. His evidence on the system of promotion, 139. On Capt. Maling's brother, 140. On Capt. Tonyn's promotion, 154. On Colonel Shaw's case, 158. Evidence respecting the Duke's hand-writing, 166. Lord Folkestone comments on his evidence, 191. Inquiry respecting his building near Chelsea hospital, 231
Gordon, Col. Alexander, killed at Talavera, II. 246
Gordon, Duke of, trial against him, II. 308
Gortz, Dr, executed at Berlin, II. 198
Gottenburgh, dinner there, II. 169
Grahame, military achievements of that family, II. 635
Grant, Sir W. master of the rolls, speech on the charges against the Duke of York, I. 185
Grattan, Mr, supports Mr Parnell's tithe bill, I. 385
Great Britain, treaty with Spain, I. 491.

Negociates for the admission of troops into Spain, 539. State of the finances, i
Greece, observations on the state of, I. 456
Grey, Lord, moves for the letters between Mr Frere and Sir J. Moore, I. 81. Supports Lord Rosslyn's motion, ib. Accuses Mr Frere of having misled Sir J. Moore, 86. Eulogium on Buonaparte's military character, 89. Correspondence with Charmilly, 104. Refuses to join the administration, 790, 791, II. 263
Grey, Mr R. W. trial against him by the Duke of Northumberland, II. 223
Grenville, Lord, speech on the address, I. 5. Objects to acknowledging Ferdinand IV. 23. Speech on Sir J. Moore's campaign, 59. On the orders of council, 404. Refuses to join the administration, 790, 791, II. 263. Chosen Chancellor of Oxford, 312. Verses spoken at his installation, 641
Grieving's a Folly, a new comedy, II. 354
Grosvenor, Gen. evidence on the Duke of York's improvements in the army, I. 171.
Guillet, Charles, tried for forgery, II. 306
Gustavus Adolphus IV. King of Sweden, his character, I. 427. Conspiracy against him, 428. Removed to Gripsholm, 432. Accused of being illegitimate, 434. His abdication, ib. Retires to Switzerland, 444. His resignation, xvii

H.

Haddington, fracas in the church there, II. 276
Haddingtonshire, meeting respecting the income tax, II. 130
Hamburgh, French edict relative to, II. 298
Hamilton, Lord, a speech on Lord Castlereagh's negociation for the sale of a seat in the House, I. 234. On Mr Curwen's bill, 257
Hampshire, county meeting for reform in Parliament, II. 118
Hanson, Col. released from prison, II. 293
Harris, Mr, his address in Covent Garden Theatre, II. 375
Harvey, Admiral, tried and dismissed by a court-martial, I. 368. II. 145
Haultpoult, French man of war, taken, II. 144
Hawkey, Capt. killed in an engagement with the Russians, I. 441. II. 222
Haydn, Joseph, his death, II. 184
Hay-Market theatre, performances there, II. 379
Hayti, empire of, I. 388
Hays, Mr, bitten by a dog, II. 275
Hebe, French sloop, taken, II. 67
Heligoland, jubilee celebrated there, II. 287
Henestrosa, Gen. shot for treachery, I. 556
Herbert, Mr, tried for an assault, II. 306
Heredia, Gen. commands the army of Estremadura, I. 482
Hesse, insurrections in, I. 618
Hewson, Hugh, Smollett's Hugh Strap, his death, II. 94
Hierler, a Tyrolese, defeats the French, I. 658
Highland Society, transactions of, II. 24
Hill, Gen. drives the French over the Douro, I. 706
Hill, Mr, his will, II. 294
Hill, Beauchamp, Sir J. Newport's motion against them, I. 322
Hiller, Gen. forced to retreat, I. 598
Hodges, Rebecca, committed for shooting Mr Birch, II. 80
Hofer, Andreas, account of him, I. 643. Heads the insurrection in the Tyrol, ib. Elected commander-in-chief, 647. Defeats Lefebvre at Storzing, 648; at Inspruck and Schwatz, 649; at Lofer, and other places, 656. Resigns his command, 658; taken and executed, 659
Hogan, Major, his pamphlet against the Duke of York, I. 112
Holland, inundations there, II. 73. French weights and measures used there, 78. Answer to the French accusations, 207
Holland, Lord, arrives at Seville, II. 64

Holmes, a boxer, killed, II. 311
Hompesch, Baron, attacked by a robber, II. 248
Hope, Gen. lands on South Beveland, I. 668
Hostalrig burnt, I. 781
Hoste, Capt. takes a man of war brig, II. 132
Hotham, Capt. forces three French frigates ashore, I. 365. Assists the Spaniards at Coruna, 712
Howorth, Mr, speech on the private India trade, and on the native troops, I. 340
Huger, Mr, his attempt to liberate La Fayette, II. 514
Hughes, Victor, capitulates at Cayenne, I. 398, 399
Humane Society, meetings of, II. 120
Huntley, Marquis of, debarks at Walcheren, I. 664. Arrives at Edinburgh, II. 153
Hume, David, letters to Mr Sharpe of Hoddom, II. 552, 553
Huskisson, Mr, defence of Colonel Gordon's building near Chelsea hospital, I. 231, 232. Speech on Colonel Wardle's plan of retrenchment, 294
Hutchinson, Mr Hely, accuses Mr Frere of having misled Sir J. Moore, I. 80
Hutchinson, Thomas, kills himself, II. 236
Hydrophobia, ridiculous case of, II. 318

I.

Jackson, Mr, sent to America, I. 417. Insulted by the populace, 418. Negociations with Mr Smith, 419. Retires to New York, 422. Returns to England, II. 186, 317
Jackson, R. convicted of an assault, II. 295
Jamaica, resolutions passed there, II. 36. Insurrection of the negroes, 149
Janizaries, their insurrection, I. 461
Iceland, outrages committed there by an English privateer, II. 284
Idra, revolt of the inhabitants, I. 455
Jedburgh, circuit-court held there, II. 252
Jefferson, Mr, his sentiments with respect to England, I. 411
Jekyll, Mr, his improvement in military discipline, II. 53
Jerome Buonaparte, made king of Westphalia, I. 619. Marches against Kienmayer, and retreats, 625
Imports and exports for the year, II. 345
Independence, or the Trustee, a new comedy, II. 357
Infantado, Duke of, takes the command of the Spanish army, I. 476. Retreats to Cuenca, ib. Reforms the army of the centre, 534. Retreats into Valencia, ib.
Inferno of Altisidora, a Vision, II. 582
Inverness, circuit-court there, II. 259
Inverury, intense cold there, II. 79
John, Archduke, successful in Italy, I. 603, II. 139. His retreat, I. 627. Ordered to join Prince Charles, 628
Johnston, Mr, killed, II. 284
Johnstone, Mr J. performances at Edinburgh, II. 400
Johnston, Mr, speech on Mr Curwen's bill of reform, I. 252
Jones, Don Felix, governor of Cadiz, his proclamation, I. 549
Jones, Sir Harford, concludes a treaty with Persia, II. 276
Joseph Buonaparte appointed king of Spain, I. 531. Enters Madrid, 532. Joins the army of Victor, 721
Josephine, divorced by Buonaparte, I. 795, 797
Irby, Captain, takes some French ships at Santandero, II. 168
Ireland, bills respecting, I. 317. Motion on flax-seed imported into the country, 319. Distilleries in the country, 321. Revenue regulation bill, 323. Budget for the country, 326. Inland navigation bill, 327. Tithe bill, 328. Public accounts, respecting, 346
Irish Catholics defended by General Matthew, I. 31
Irish horses sent to Portugal, their ill condition, I. 43
Irenzo, General, joins Reding, I. 552
Is he a Prince? a new farce, II. 357
Ismael surrenders to Prince Bagrathion, I. 467
Jubilee, preparations for, II. 267. General orders at Edinburgh relative to, 273. Celebration of, 276. At Walcheren, Heligoland, 287

Julian, trial for forgery, II. 129
Junon frigate taken, II. 111
Junot, Marshal, besieges Zaragoza, I. 513. Defeated by Kienmayer, 625
Junta, central, negociations with Mr Frere, I. 539, &c. Proclamation to the people of Cadiz, 550. Reject the French propositions, 559. Their ill conduct, 750. List of the members, II. 52. Proclamation respecting the cortes, 303

K.

Keats, Sir R. plans the expedition to Basque Roads, I. 367. His plan of attacking the fleet at Antwerp, 678
Kellermann, General, letter to Soult, I. 703. His proclamation, 760
Kelso, proceedings at the justiciary court, II. 31. A sharper there, 69
Kemble, Mr, his address on opening the new Covent-Garden theatre, II. 362. Farther addresses, 364, 367. Conference with the O. P.'s at the Crown and Anchor, 373. Address after the meeting to the audience, 375
Kennaway, Sir J. his house burnt, II. 10
Kennet, Mr, transactions with the Duke of York, I. 162
Kent, Duke of, speech on his being accused of having instigated Col. Wardle's motion against the Duke of York, I. 297, 300
Kensington palace on fire, II. 80
Kienmayer, General, commands the Austrians in Saxony, I. 624. Defeats Junot, 625
Killing no Murder, a new farce, II. 382
Kirwan, Dr, discovery of an anemometer, II. 449
Knight, Lieut. Col. procures an exchange with Lieut. Col. Brooke by the means of Mrs Clarke, I. 118. His case stated, I. 128
Knight, Mr Rob. examined on his brother's exchange, I. 128.
Knight, Mr, his appearance at the Lyceum, II. 356
Knight, Mr, his experiments on vegetation, II. 436. Discovery in training fruit-trees, 445, and in constructing hot-beds, 454
Kola, some ships destroyed there, II. 249

L.

Labat, Father, acts as engineer at the isles of Saints, I. 385
Lacoste killed at Zaragoza, I. 513
Lambert, Mr, death of, II. 165
Landshut taken by the Austrians, I. 593. Retaken by the French, 595
Langworth, General, killed at Talavera, I. 727
Lapena, Gen. succeeds to the command of Castanos' army, I. 470. Marches to Guadalaxara, 473. Displaced by the junta, 558
Lark sloop, loss of, II. 291
Lasalle, Gen. puts some English to the sword, I. 484. Killed at Wagram, 631
La Sards, taken by the English, II. 17
Lasnes, Marshal, besieges Zaragoza, I. 513. His entrance into the city, 524. Dies of the wounds received at Aspern, 614
Latham, Miss, her trial, II. 264, 285
Laval, Gen. governor of Zaragoza, I. 520
Laurel frigate taken, II. 86
Lefebvre, Marshal, enters Madrid, I. 485. Forced to abandon Landshut, 593. Enters the Tyrol, 645. Advances a second time into the country, 647. Defeated at Storzing, 648; at Inspruck and Schwatz, 649. Advances again to Inspruck, 657
Lefebvre, Lieut. Gen. arrives in England, II. 29, 30
Leipzig, the Saxons and Westphalians defeated there by the Duke of Brunswick, 633
Lenieps, M. discovery of the Pyreolophorus, II. 451
Lerida, reception of Major Green there, II. 56
Lewis, Archduke, raises forces in Hungary, I. 591. Wounded at Tann, 594. Defeated at Abensberg, ib. His further retreat, 596
Lewis, Mr M. G. his monody on Sir J. Moore suppressed, II. 351
Lewis, Mr, takes leave of the London audience, II. 357
Leycester, Mr, panegyric on the Duke of York, I. 185

Lili, D. Miguel, conducts a Spanish corps to the Duke del Infantado, 477
Lima, rejoicings there, II. 27
Limerick, arms seized there, II. 70
Liniers, Gen. his disputes with the Cabilda at Buenos Ayres, II. 126
Lisbon, embarkation of the English army, I. 497. Patriotism of the inhabitants, II. 60. Earthquake, 292
Literary fund, meeting of the society, II. 115
Liverpool, riots there, II. 175. Riots at the theatre, 376
Liverpool, Earl of, speech in support of the address, I. 10. Objects to producing the correspondence between Sir J. Moore and Mr Frere, 81. Defends the conduct of ministers, 83, 90; and Mr Frere, 91, 93. Speaks in favour of Mr Curwen's bill, 281. Speech on the budget, 306. Defends the removal of Sir J. Craddock to Gibraltar, 695. Objects to producing the instructions to Sir Hew Dalrymple, 701. Negroes set at liberty from a Portugueze ship there, 266. Humane association, 302
Lloyd, Major, killed in Ireland, II. 85
Local Militia, success of the system, I. 310
London bill of mortality, II. 50, 335. Porter-brewers' list, 51. Address of thanks to Colonel Wardle from the livery, 104. Fire in the docks, 136. Celebration of the jubilee, 280; of St Andrew's day, 300. Riots of the Irish, 315. Answer to the petition respecting Walcheren, 316. Meteorological Journal kept at London, 493
London Review, observations on, II. 579
Londonderry, small debtors liberated by the bishop, II. 302
Long, Mr, defence of Colonel Gordon's building near Chelsea hospital, I. 231
Lord Mayor's day, II. 291
Lottery, puffs in the paper, II. 109. Contracts for, 287
Lowe, Mrs, her and her children drowned, II. 266
Lyceum, the Drury-Lane company perform there, II. 354. The English opera opened there, 383
Lyttleton, Mr, speech on the charges against the Duke of York, I. 222

M.

Macdonald, General, his success at the battle of Wagram, I. 630
Macdonald, Major, frustrated in an exchange with Major Sinclair, I. 118
Macdowal, General, his transactions at Madras, II. 190
Macgowan, letter to him from Shenstone, II. 549
Macedonia, revolt of the inhabitants, I. 455
Machardy, Major, discovery of a new telegraph, II. 444
Mackenzie, General, his objections to acting in concert with Cuesta, I. 545. Appeases the tumult at Cadiz, 549. Defends the passes at Abrantes, 705. Killed at Talavera, 727.
Mackenzie, Captain G. C. his humane conduct in the duel betwixt Lord Paget and Captain Codogan, II. 151.
Mackinley, Captain, assists the patriots in Galicia, I. 561. Defends Vigo, 712
Macklin, Sir G. duel in America, II. 164
Maddison, Mr, President of the United States, I. 412. Charges England with breach of faith, 422
Madocks, Mr, motion against Mr Perceval and Lord Castlereagh, I. 244, 245, 246
Madras, insurrection among the troops, II. 190
Madrid, Lefebvre enters the city, I. 485. Buonaparte addressed by the inhabitants, 528. Oppression of the people, 536. Surrenders, II. 20
Mahommed, Grand Sultan, I. 458. Flies and is reinstated, 462
Mahon, Ensign, duel with O'Hara, II. 163
Mahy, General, commands Romana's army, I. 709
Maitland, General, his operations in Martinique, I. 381. Reduces the Saints, 385
Maling, Capt. obtains promotion through Mr Greenwood, I. 119. His case brought forward, 138. Mistaken by Colonel Wardle for his brother, 140
Maltby, Mr, examined on negociating for offices, I. 155
Man and Wife, a new comedy, II. 350
Manby, Captain, his experiment for saving seamen from wrecks, II. 152
Mangata taken by the Russians, I. 468

Mansell, Mr, escapes from France, II. 94
Mansfield, Sir J. speech on the riots at Covent-Garden theatre, II. 371
Marchand, General, defeated, I. 762
Marengo, battle of, II. 531
Marlborough, W. and Anne, tried for parental cruelty, II. 273
Marquez, Gen. marches against French Guiana, I. 394
Marriages, list of, II. 320.
Marriot, Rev. J. The Poet released from the Law, II. 652.
Marryat, Mr, speech on the settlement of the Martinique trade, I. 383
Martin, Mr H. objects to the Irish distillery laws, I. 322
Martinique, taken by the English, I. 380, II. 69, 93. Settlement of the trade, I. 383. Three French frigates arrive there, II. 59. The prisoners arrive at Portsmouth, 139
Mascarelli, Count, taken prisoner by the French, I. 651
Massena, defeats the Austrians at Landshut, I. 595
Mason, Mr, his character as an actor, II. 389.
Mathieu, General, enters Borja, I. 471
Matthew, General, defends the Irish Catholics, I. 31
Mauchlin, thunder storm there, II. 205
Maupetit, General, stationed at Salamanca, I. 498
Maximilian Joseph, King of Bavaria, his proclamation, I. 593
Maximilian, Archduke, takes the command of Vienna, I. 600. Leaves the city, 602.
Meadley, Ensign, murdered at Jamaica, II. 255
Medellin, battle of, I. 556
Medina Sidonia, Duke of, his patriotism, I. 502
Melvin, Mr, his appearance at the Lyceum, II. 356
Mendizabal, General, takes Villafranca, I. 571
Mermaids, reported to have been seen, II. 286
Mermet, General, takes Ferrol, I. 495.
Messina, state of the troops there, II. 288
Metastasio, translation of his Storm, II. 650
Meteorological tables, II. 465; observations, 506
Metternich, Count, conference with Buonaparte, I. 578
Mexico, state of the kingdom, II. 14
Mickle-ferry, accident there, II. 248
Middleburgh, taken by the English, I. 666
Middleton, Mr, misfortunes in his family, II. 9
Militia-volunteering bill proposed, I. 308
Milton, Lord, speaks on Sir J. Moore's campaign, I. 72; on Colonel Gordon's lease at Chelsea, 233. Objects to Lord Castlereagh's system of volunteering from the militia, 308
Minto, Lord, speech on Oriental literature, II. 3
Miquelets, account of them, I. 554
Missiessy, Admiral, commands the French fleet in the Scheldt, I. 677
Moguer, friar, saves the Marquis of Vilel, I. 549
Moira, Earl of, speech on the address, I. 12. Defends Sir Harry Burrard, 34. Speech on Sir J. Moore's campaign, 58, 98
Moncey, Marshal, besieges Zaragoza, I. 509. Letter to Palafox, 511
Monjuic attacked by the French, I. 790
Monnet, General, governor of Flushing, I. 672. Surrenders, 675. His opinion on keeping the town, 689. Arrives in England, II. 256
Montenegro, character of the inhabitants, I. 453
Moore, Sir John, opinions on his campaign, I. 56. Vote of thanks to the soldiers under him, 58. A monument voted to him, 59, 61. His last dispatch moved for, 61; it is produced, 82. Refuses a convention with the French, 84. His correspondence with Mr Frere laid before Parliament, 86. A pension granted to his brother, 96. Observations on his conduct, 105. Buonaparte's opinion on it, 106. His military talents, 108. A monument erected to him at Coruna, 715, II. 250. His retreat, 28. General orders respecting him, 56. Monument for him at Glasgow, 61, 80. Monody on his death by Lewis, 351

Moore, Mr Peter, speech on the East India committee, I. 340
Moore, Francis, his predictions respecting Turkey, I. 448
Moore, Ann, her extraordinary abstinence, II. 286
Moorhead, T. his wonderful preservation, II. 101
Morla, General, his treachery, I. 94. Directs the central junta, 472. Endeavours to influence the junta in favour of France, 500
Morocco, Emperor of, assists the Spaniards, II. 73
Morpeth, Lord, moves for a pension to Sir J. Moore's brother, I. 96
Mortier, Marshal, besieges Zaragoza, I. 513. Takes Cassel, 619. Joins Victor after the battle of Talavera, 732. His treatment of the wounded, 736
Moseley, Sir Oswald, moves for a committee to investigate Colonel Gordon's lease at Chelsea, I. 232
Mother Goose revived by the Covent-Garden company, II. 359
Moulds, W. convicted of murder, II. 238
Murillo, Don Pablo, defends one of the bridges at Talavera, I. 488. Takes the command before Vigo, 568, 569. Defeats the French in Galicia, 712
Murray, General, crosses the Douro, I. 706
Murray, Lady Augusta, the Duke of Sussex's suit against her, II. 129
Murray, Mr, killed near Aberdeen, II. 199
Murray, Mr, his character as an actor, II. 390
Mustapha IV. Grand Sultan, I. 457; imprisoned, 458; strangled, 461
Mustapha Bairacter, reduces the Tabrates, I. 458. Made grand visier, 459. His reforms in the army, ib. Negociates with the English, 461. He disappears, ib.

N.

Nairn, a fishing-boat overset, II. 135
Naples, celebration of Buonaparte's birthday, II. 254
Nasch, Don G. governor of Monjuic, I. 770
Navy, petition of the captains and commanders, I. 314, II. 73. Observations on the navy system, I. 316. State of the navy, II. 251, 317
Nelson, Lord, statue at Birmingham to his memory, II. 302
Nenadowitsch, a Servian general, defeats the Turks, I. 466, 467
Newcastle, thunder storm there, II. 209
Newman, serjeant, his gallant conduct during Sir J. Moore's retreat, I. 84, II. 62
Newport, Sir J. opposes Mr Foster's distillery bill, I. 320. Motion against Beauchamp Hill, 322. Negatived, 323. Objects to the Irish revenue regulation bill, ib. Speech on the Irish inland navigation bill, 327
New York, meeting of the Federalists there, II. 154
Ney, Marshal, his rapacity at Soria, I. 471. Governor of Galicia, 561. Marches against Romana's army, 710. Attacks Vigo, 711
Nichol, Mrs, her character as an actress, II. 392
Nicholl, Ensign, tried by a court martial, II. 170.
Nicholson, Mr, his discoveries in chemistry, II. 421
Nield, J. relieves small debtors, II. 302
Niemen frigate taken, II. 111
Nisbet, W. a mail-coach driver, fined, II. 22
Noble, Miss, killed, II. 249
Normand, M. le, discovery of making copal varnish, II. 452
Norona, Count, account of him, I. 711.
North, Hon. F. his house burnt down, II. 183
Northumberland, Duke of, trial respecting his mines, II. 223
Norton, General, evidence on the improvements introduced by the Duke of York, I. 169, 170
Norwich, treatment of the French prisoners there, II. 256
Nottingham, meteorological journal kept there, II. 511
Nugent, General, speech on the Cintra convention, I. 42.

O.

Oakly, Mr, left by Mr Jackson at Washington, I, 422
O'Donnel, Don E. his exploits at Gerona, I. 770, 780
O'Hara, L. surgeon, duel with Ensign Mahon, II. 163
Oldacre, convicted of trespassing in sporting, II. 273
Old Bailey, sessions there, II. 172, 288
Oliver, W. convicted of robbery, II. 285
O'Meara, Dr, negociates for a bishoprick with Mrs Clarke, I. 148, 155; letter in vindication of himself, 302
O'Neil, publishes an account of the battle of Tudela, I. 508
Oramin, Lud. examined respecting the Duke of York, I. 136
Ord, Mr, motion on the Dutch commissioners, I. 345
Orders of council, debates on, I. 403
O'Reilly, General, gives up Vienna, I. 602
Oriental literature, state of, II. 3
Osden, General, retires to Flushing, I. 666. Commands a sally, 672
Ossian, Shenstone's observations on, II. 550
Ossulston, Lord, motion against sinecures, I. 350
Oswald, Gen. takes Zante, Cephalonia, and Cerigo, I. 788, II. 307
Ouseley, Capt. his machine for destroying ships, II 109
Oxford, Christ Church College on fire, II. 83. Meeting for an address of thanks to Col. Wardle, 105. State of the university, 402. Further observations, 656
Owen, Commodore, lands the troops of the Marquis of Huntley, I. 664

P.

Pack, Col. lands on Walcheren, I. 665
Packington, Joan, convicted of child murder, II. 256
Paget, General, wounded in crossing the Douro, I. 706
Paget, Lord, bravery of his cavalry, II. 14, 23. Letter to Sir J. Moore, 28. Elopes with Lady Wellesley, 87. Action against him laid by Mr H. Wellesley, 133. Duel with Captain Cadogan, 151
Palafox, his defence of Zaragoza, I. 508. Answer to Moncey, 511. His proclamation to the people of Madrid, 512. Transfers his authority to Don P. M. Ric, 516. Lasnes' promise of liberty to him, 520. Sent prisoner to France, 522. Pretended to have died at Zaragoza, II. 92
Palafox, Don F. forms a corps to the relief of his brother, I. 512
Parliament, the King's speech, I. 1. Remarks on reforming it, 288. Parties in the House of Commons, 289. Number of acts passed in the session, 364. Public acts passed in the session, viii
Parmentier, M. discovery in extracting opium, II. 453
Parnell, Mr, supports Colonel Wardle's plan of retrenchment, I. 296. Objects to the Irish distillery laws, 322. Speech on the Irish inland navigation bill, 327. Bill for equalizing the currency of the two countries negatived, 328. Bill on the Irish tithes, ib. Moves for a commission of inquiry, 336
Parque, Duke of, defeats the French, I. 762, II. 292. Defeated, I. 765
Pasley, Captain, his Essay recommended, I. 345, 674
Passowan Oglu, defeated by the Servians, I. 450
Patents for new inventions, list of, II. 456
Paterson, Miss, created a duchess, II. 316
Patrick, Colonel, killed at Amarante, I. 704
Payeken, a sailor, saves two boys from drowning, II. 257
Penson, Mrs, W. her character as an actress, II. 391
Pepys, Sir Lucas, declines proceeding to Walcheren, I. 688
Perceval, Mr, speech on the convention of Cintra, I. 50; on Colonel Wardle's motion, 123. Moves a committee of the whole House, 124. States the expence of Mrs Clarke's establishment at Gloucester Place, 148. Endeavours to invalidate Miss Taylor's evidence, 149. Extorts a confession from her respecting her private affairs, 150. Speech on advertising for offices, 151. Examines Mrs Clarke on her intercourse with Mr Dowler, 157. Observations on his course of proceeding, 158. Examines Miss Taylor, 168, 169. Defends the Duke of York's letter to the speaker, 172. General speech on the charges, 176. Moves an amendment, 182. His resolution carried, 224. Defence of Colonel Gordon's lease at Chelsea, 232, 233. Objects to an inquiry on the disposal of offices, 234. Moves a bill to prevent the sale of offices, 236, 237. Mr Madocks' motion against him, 244. His defence, 246. Speech on Mr Curwen's bill of reform, 252. Objects to the oath, 276, and to the clause respecting promises of seats, 277. Speaks against Sir F. Burdett's bill of reform, 287. Proposes the budget, 302. Defends the appointment of B. Hill, 323. Opposes Mr Parnell's tithe bill, 338. Speech on the Dutch commissioners, 349. Objects to the bill on offices in reversion, 350. Speech on small church livings, 360

Percy, Earl, swindling trick of one who personated him, II. 318

Persia, treaty with, II. 276. Persian ambassador arrives, 315

Pesaro taken by the English, II. 236

Petty, Lord Henry, justifies the war in Spain, I. 30. Praises Sir F. Burdett's speech, 32. His motion on the convention of Cintra, 54. Rejected, 52. Speech on Sir John Moore's monument, 60. Objects to the Duke of York's letter to the speaker, 172

Pigot, Captain, takes a French corvette, II. 17

Pilton, Mr, discovery of a new fence, II. 444

Pipers, competition of, II. 209

Pitt, celebration of his birth day at Edinburgh, II. 153

Pius VII. Pope, protests against the annexation of Rome to France, I. 653

Plumbe, John, a treasure found in his house, II. 205

Plymouth, condition of the troops landed there, I. 56. Bill for a new police at the dock, 311

Poacher, the, a poetical fragment, II. 591

Pohlman and Keylock, tried for selling offices, I. 344

Pole, Sir C. speech on the prize courts, I. 310. Speech on the marine force, 312. Objects to Mr Rose's bill on prize money and wages, 313

Pole, Mr Wellesley, motion on the compassionate bill, I. 311. Speech on the marine force in answer to Sir C. Pole, 313. Speech on prize money and wages to the seamen, ib. Answer to the petition of the captains and commanders, 315. Defends the appointment of Mr Walter, 352. Letter to Lord Cochrane, II. 203

Poll, Mr, killed by an accident, II. 19

Polly, La, French schooner, taken, II. 18

Ponsonby, Mr, speech on the address, I. 13. On Sir J. Moore's campaign, 62. On the charges against the Duke of York, 206. On an inquiry into the disposal of offices, 235. Objects to Mr Curwen's bill, 278. Speech against Mr Whitbread, 303.

Poole, meeting to thank Colonel Wardle, II. 133

Popham, Sir Home, enters the West-Scheldt with some gun-boats, I. 677

Porchester, Lord, bill on offices in reversion, I. 350. Objects to Lord Auckland's standing order on the subject of divorces, 359

Porteus, Bishop, his death, II. 144

Portland, Duke of, Colonel Wardle's accusation against him, I. 123. His death, II. 291

Porto, attacked by Soult, and taken, I. 566, 567

Portsmouth, accident there, II. 67. Explosion of powder, 167. Description of the block machinery there, 440

Portugal, Earl St Vincent's eulogium on the nation, I. 4. Observations on its close connection with England, 20, 21. Proclamation of the government, 497. Military preparations, II. 28. The expedition sails, 108. Arms and other articles furnished to the Portugueze, 123

Prendergast, motion on the private India trade, I. 340

Presburg, peace of, I. 576

Prevost, Sir George, lands in Martinique, I. 381
Princesse lugger taken, II. 132
Promotions, list of, II. 330
Property tax, amount of, II. 206
Prussia, situation of, I. 577
Prutz, pass of, 6000 French, Saxons, and Bavarians crushed to death by the rocks, I. 648
Public accounts for the year, II. 338
Puig, Don A. retreats from Talavera, I. 488
Pulteney, Sir James, speech on Colonel Wardle's motion, I. 120. Panegyric on the Duke of York, 185. Speech on the meeting of general officers, 223
Purbeck, a large tortoise taken there, II. 207
Pye, H. J. Ode on the New-year, II. 653. On his Majesty's birth-day, 654
Pylades French brig taken, II. 18

Q.

Quarterly Review, observations on, II. 578
Quick, Mr, his appearance at the Lyceum, II. 384

R.

Raab, battle of, I. 627; besieged, ib.
Radewojewich commands the Austrians in Franconia, I. 625
Ragusa seized by the French, I. 455
Rain, quantity of, at Edinburgh, II. 510. In different parts, 512
Rainer, Archduke, raises forces in Hungary, I. 591
Ram, J. his extraordinary age, II. 102
Ramirez, Don J. S. marches against St Domingo, I. 391
Ramsgate, case of humanity there, II. 260
Ratisbon, a French corps surprised there, I. 595. Stormed by the French, 596
Rattray, Colonel, killed, II. 88
Reding, Gen. his operations in Aragon, I. 513. His situation, 517. Killed in Catalonia, 559
Reform, Parliamentary, remarks on, I. 288
Reille besieges Rosas, I. 504
Reubell pursues the Duke of Brunswick, I. 635, 637. Arrives in England, II. 258
Revenue and expenditure for the year, II. 338
Rhine, confederation of the, I. 576
Ric, D. Pedro Maria, made president of the junta of Zaragoza, I. 516. Negociates with Lasnes, 518
Richardson, Mr, discovery for raising stones, II. 443
Richmond, Duke of, his declaration at Cork, II. 272
Rogers, Capt. his exploits off Genoa, II. 16
Roman Catholics, English, meeting at the Earl of Shrewsbury's, II. 128. Address at the jubilee, 283
Romana, Marquis of, his situation in Galicia, I. 494. His operations in Galicia, 535, 536. Rejects the offers of Soult, 563. Takes Pontevedra, 568. Marches into Asturia, 570. Dissolves the junta at Oviedo, 709. Erects a monument to Sir J. Moore, 713
Rome incorporated with the French empire, I. 651
Romilly, Sir S. speech on the appointment of B. Hill in Ireland, I. 325. Bill to alter the bankrupt laws, 354. To reform the criminal laws, 357
Rosas besieged by the French, I. 504
Rose, Mr, bill on wages and prize-money paid to the navy, I. 313
Rosslyn, Earl of, moves for the instructions of ministers respecting military affairs in Spain, I. 81. His advice respecting the destruction of the ships at Antwerp, 678
Rovira, Doctor Colonel, his exploits in Catalonia, I. 775
Rowe, Mr, imprisoned, II. 70
Roxburgh, dukedom of, case of, II. 189
Rusca, Gen. enters the Tyrol, I. 645. Defeated, 649
Russia, gun-boats defeated, I. 441. Vessels taken by the English, 444. War with Turkey, 446. Decay of the trade, ib. Armistice with the Turks, 448. War resumed, 465. The army recruited, 467. Operations in Austrian Poland, 615. Territory ceded by Austria to Russia, 655. Declaration against Austria, II. 153. Peace with Sweden, I. 442, xviii. II. 271

Russian Impostor, a new opera, II. 384

S.

Sabbath, profanation of, II. 8
Safe and Sound, a new opera, II. 384
St Cyr, Gen. his operations in Aragon, I. 513. His engagement with Reding, 553
Saint Domingo, the Spanish part ceded to France, I. 387. The inhabitants emigrate, 388. The town besieged, 392. Taken, 395, II. 254. Battle between the French and Spaniards, 112
St Domingo man of war launched, II. 82
Saints, Isles of, taken by the English, I. 385, 387
St James's palace, fire there, II. 37
St Louis, in Senegal, taken by the English, I. 400, II. 248. Description of the settlement, I. 401
St Marc, Gen. repulses the French at Zaragoza, I. 510. His operations during the siege, 516, 517
St Paul's school, meeting of, II. 115
St Vincent, Earl, opposes the address to the king, I. 3
Salingre, F. de, discovery of a new oil, II. 450
Salzburg, insurrection there, I. 649
Samuel, Mr, discovery of a method of yoking horses, II. 447
Sandon, Capt. Huxley, transactions with Col. French and the Duke of York, I. 143, 163. Examined, 164
Sandwich lugger, action with a French lugger, II. 23
San Juan commands the Spanish at Somosierra, I. 482. Killed, 483
Santandero, situation of the town, II. 63. Ships taken there, 168
Santiago, P. Basilius de, shot at Zaragoza, I, 522
Santiago, taken by the Spaniards, II. 181
Sass, P. Santiago, shot at Zaragoza, I. 522
Saxony, situation of, I. 591. Proclamation of the king, 649
Scarborough, a ship lost off, II. 295
Scheldt, description of the mouth of that river, I. 663. Impossibility of rendering it no longer navigable for ships of war, 681, 682
Schill, his insurrection, I. 617. His operations, 620. Takes Stralsund, ib. Killed, 621. His proclamation, II. 160. Death, 161. Trial of his officers, 269
Schouwen, isle of, capitulates to the English, I. 678
Schwatz, town of, burnt by Lefebvre, I. 646
Scrimshire, W. his substitute for coffee, II. 53
Scilly islands, a harbour projected there, II. 178
Seaford, vessels wrecked there, II. 308
Scott, Walter, The Vision of Don Roderick, a poem, II. 601. Verses on Miss Anna Seward's monument for her father, 643. Poem on his retiring from the bar, 652
Seaton, inundation there, II. 46
Sebastiani, General, French minister at the Porte, I. 447. Defeats Frias at Talavera, 487. Defeats the army of La Mancha, 557. Commands against Venegas, 743
Seguin, M. discovery for improving alum, II. 451
Selim III. Sultan, resigns, I. 448. Murdered, 458
Servia, revolutions there, I. 450. Desolated by the Turks, 466
Seville, the central junta removed thither, I. 502
Shaw, Colonel, transactions with Mrs Clarke, I. 118. His case brought forward, 158
Shaw, Mr, motion on the paving and lighting Dublin, I. 324
Sheffield, vote of thanks to Col. Wardle, I. 297
Sheffield, Earl, seconds the address on the king's speech, I. 2
Shenstone, W. letter to Mr MacGowan, II. 549
Sherbrooke, Gen. negociations respecting his admission into Cadiz, I. 540. Ordered to proceed to Lisbon, 547. His expedition dispersed, II. 62. Lands at Lisbon, 95
Sheridan, Mr, speaks against adjourning the house on Drury-lane theatre being on fire, I. 76, II. 77. Speaks against

Col. Wardle's delaying to bring forward his charges against the Duke of York, I. 142. Brings forward Dr O'Meara's transactions with Mrs Clarke, 148. Gets a licence for the Drury-lane company to perform at the opera house, 353
Sheriffs, list of, II. 333
Siddons, Mrs, her performances at Edinburgh, II. 400
Siddons, Mr H. manager of the Edinburgh theatre, II. 385
Siddons, Mrs H. her character as an actress, II. 390
Sidmouth, Lord, speech on the address, I. 4. On the Spanish campaign, 93. On the budget, 305. On the volunteering from the militia, 309. Proposed amendment of the toleration act, 360
Silistria, the Russians defeated there, I. 468
Sinclair, Major, frustrated in a proposed exchange with Major Macdonald, I. 118
Silveira, General, wishes to abandon Chaves, I. 563. Appears again before that town, 565
Simpkin, Mrs, curious difference about her child, II. 86
Slavonians, misfortunes of that race of people, I. 448
Smith, Mr William, speech on Colonel Wardle's delay in producing his witnesses, I. 141. Objects to the committal of Donovan, 152. Speaks on the questions put to Miss Taylor, 169. On Mr Curwen's bill of reform, 257. On the East India committee, 339
Smith, Mr, American secretary, negociations with Mr Erskine, I. 412, &c.; with Mr Jackson, 419
Smith, Sir George, negociates with the junta at Seville, I. 540. Recalled 547
Smith, Mr, convicted of an assault, II. 71
Smith, a boxer, killed, II. 224
Snow, great fall of, II. 44
Soaper, T. killed by a rattlesnake, II. 290
Society in Scotland for propagating Christian knowledge, their meeting, II. 159
Somosierra, pass of, lost by the Spaniards, I. 471
Soria given up to the French, I. 471
Sotelo, T. M. endeavours to gain the junta over to the French, I. 558
Sotheby, Admiral, lands the French prisoners from St Louis at Quiberon, I. 401
Soult, Marshal, marches towards Portugal, I. 496. Enters Portugal, 561. His proclamation to the inhabitants, 571. His perilous situation, 574. Takes the bridge of Amarante, 704. Defeated at Avintas, 706. Letter to Joseph Buonaparte, 713
Southey, Robert, Garci Ferrandez, a poem, II. 637
Spain, Lord Grenville reprobates the want of exertion in the nation, I. 5. Mr Ponsonby speaks on the aid to be afforded them, 15. Answered by Lord Castlereagh, 16. Reprobated by Mr Whitbread 18, 19. Answer by Mr Canning, 22. General opinions on the campaigns there, 56, 57. Inactivity of the people in assisting Sir J. Moore complained of by him, 82. Military affairs of Spain, 470. Treaty with England, 491. Number of the French armies in Spain, 759. Treaty of peace with England, xxiii. Subscription for the Spanish patriots, II. 11. Arms and other articles furnished to them, 123. Gratitude to the English, 235
Spence, Joseph, letter to Bishop Conybeare, II. 554
Spence, Lieut. drowned at Gibraltar, II. 312
Spittal, R. tried for robbery, II. 297
Stahremberg, Prince, arrives at London as Austrian envoy, II. 133. Dispatches sent to him, 309
Stass, Mr, discovery of a new way to clean boots, II. 455
Steam boat at Quebec, II. 317
Stephen, Mr, speech on recalling the writers and cadets from India who had obtained their places by corrupt means, I. 343. Objects to the proclamation issued in Martinique, 383. Defends the orders of council, 404
Sternbach, Countess of, fights among the Tyrolese, I. 657
Stewart, General, explains the nature of Sir J. Moore's last dispatch, I. 61. Speaks on the loss during that general's campaign, 72
Stewart, Lord George, takes the Iris French frigate, II. 64

Steyer, city of, burnt, II. 164
Stobsmoor fair, riot there, II. 189
Stockdale, trial of, II. 100
Stocks, price of, II. 336
Stopford, Admiral, chases the Brest squadron, I. 365. Ordered to proceed up the Charente, 374
Storm, the, a poem from Metastasio, II. 650
Story, Mr J. his two daughters drowned, II. 258
Strachan, Sir Richard, commands the naval part of the Walcheren expedition, I. 660. His plan of defending Flushing, 690
Stralsund, taken by Schill, I. 620; and retaken, 621
Stuart, Sir John, undertakes an expedition to Naples, I. 787. Number of men killed and wounded, II. 253
Sturmer, Von, Austrian ambassador to the Porte, I. 463
Styling, Mrs, murdered, II. 294
Suchet, Gen. covers the siege of Zaragoza, I. 513
Sudermania, Duke of, seizes the government of Sweden, I. 430. Concludes an armistice with Russia and Denmark, 432. Elected king, 436. (See Charles XIII.)
Suffolk, Earl of, praises the army of Sir J. Moore, I. 83
Sussex, Duke of, suit against Lady A. Murray, II. 129
Sutherland, John, tried for murder, II. 165
Sutherland, Mrs Sinclair, intrigues against Major Turner, I. 160. Her trial, II. 184
Sweden, Mr Ponsonby reprobates the subsidy to that power, I. 18. State of the country, 426. Charles XIII. chosen king, 436. A new constitution of the country, ib. Peace with Russia, 442, xviii, and with Denmark, 443. Declaration of the States, xvii. Distress of the inhabitants, II. 87. Revolution, 95, 169. Peace with Russia, 271
Swindling, curious cases of, II. 45, 317
Swindling banking concern, II. 172

T.

Tabrates, insurgents in Constantinople, I. 457. They submit, 458
Tagus, breadth of the river at Lisbon, I. 42
Talavera, bridges endeavoured to be destroyed by the Spaniards, I. 486. Battle of, 723. Gazette account, II. 239
Tann, battle of, I. 594
Tarleton, General, speech on the Cintra convention, I. 42. Attacks Colonel Charmilly, 95
Taylor, John, his oppression, II. 9
Taylor, Miss, her evidence on the charges against the Duke of York, I. 149. Colonel Wardle's statement respecting her, 151. Again examined, 168. A subscription raised for her, 231, II. 166
Taylor, Mr, his treatment of the Drury-lane company, II. 354
Taxis, Lieut. report of the successes of the Tyrolese, II. 137
Temper, a new farce, by M. G. Lewis, II. 354
Tempest, the, observations on, II. 394, 395
Temple, Lord, proposes to adjourn the debate on the Spanish campaign on Drury-lane theatre being on fire, I. 76. Moves a censure on ministers for the same campaign, 96. Speech on the charges against the Duke of York, 204
Terry, Mr, his character as an actor, II. 387
Ter Veer taken by the English, I. 666, 667
Thenard and Gui Lussac, discoveries in chemistry, II. 428, 429
Thielemann, Colonel, retreats into Saxony, I. 623
Thompson, Mr, his character as an actor, II. 390
Thomson's anniversary at Ednam, II. 264
Thornton, Mr, speech on the Dutch commissioners, I. 349
Thynne, Dr, evidence on Col. Brooke's exchange, I. 128
Tierney, Mr, reprobates the convention of Cintra, I. 20. Speech on the campaign under Sir J. Moore, 71. Speech on Mr Frere, 94. Accuses ministers of slighting Sir J. Moore, 102. Speaks against Sir F. Burdett, 272. Calls upon Mr Wardle to verify his system of economy, 273. Speech on the orders of council, 403. On the treaty with Spain, 492

Tighe, Mr, supports Mr Parnell's tithe bill, I. 333
Tipperary, riots in the county of, II. 268
Titchfield, Marquis of, examined on the charges respecting the Duke of Portland, I. 151
Todd, J. J. killed by his gun bursting, II. 253
Toledo, surrenders to the French, I. 479. Patriotism of the inhabitants, 480
Tonyn, Captain, purchased a majority from Mrs Clarke, I. 117. His case brought forward, 153. Further evidence on his case, 163
Topaze frigate taken, I. 399
Tranquebar taken by the English, II. 224
Toussaint, his conduct in St Domingo, I. 388
Trant, Col. defends the passage of the Vouga, I. 705
Travancore, storming of the lines of, II. 193
Travers, East Indiaman, lost, II. 123
Trias, Don F. overpowered by Sebastiani, I. 487
Tremlett, Capt. tried by a court-martial, I. 140
Troughton, discovery of a way of dividing astronomical instruments, II. 454
Tudela, battle of, I. 470
Turkey, war with Russia, I. 447. Armistice, 448. State of the empire, 457. The war resumed, 463
Turnbull, W. killed, II. 297
Turnbull, W. perishes in the snow, II. 1
Turner, Major, Mrs Sinclair Sutherland intrigues against him, I. 160. Brings her to a trial, II. 184
Turner, discovery of constructing muffles, II. 455
Turton, Sir Thomas, proposes an amendment on the charges against the Duke of York, I. 184, 221. Negatived, 223. Speech on the abuses in the appointment of cadets and writers to India, 343. Bill for the relief of insolvent debtors, 353. Speech in favour of lotteries, 360
Tuy, taken by the Spaniards, I. 570
Tyrol, accounts of the people, I. 640. Their efforts in 1805, 642. Insurrection under Hofer, 643. The insurgents enter Swabia and Bavaria, 646; and for a second time, 656. Austrian account of their successes, II. 137. Deputies sent to England, 290. Proclamation of the French, 294.

U, V.

Vansittart, Mr, moves resolutions on the finances of the country, I. 307. The resolutions, i
Var French frigate taken, II. 131
Venegas, General, commands the rear of Castanos, I. 472. Defeated by Victor, 534. Commands the army of La Mancha, 716. Repulses the French, 740. Defeated, 744
Venerable man of war, perilous situation of, II. 268
Venice, insurrection there, I. 650
Victor, Marshal, defeats Venegas, I. 534. Foiled by the Duke de Albuquerque, 554. Forces the passage of the Tagus, 555. Defeats Cuesta, 556. Takes Alcantara, 708. Retreats into Spain, 716. His treatment of the wounded after the battle of Talavera, 736
Vienna, Buonaparte arrives before the city, I. 599. Situation of the town, 600. Capitulates, 602
Vigo besieged by the Galician peasants, I. 568. Defended by the Spaniards, 712
Villacannas, patriotism of the inhabitants, I. 480
Villafranca taken by Mendizabal, I. 571
Villel, Marquis of, insurrection against him at Cadiz, I. 548
Vintagers, the, a new play, II. 382
Virues, Governor of Cadiz, displaced, I. 501
Vision of Don Roderick, a poem, by W. Scott, II. 601
Vision of Triermain, a poetical fragment, II. 596
Vitalis, M. discovery of a new acid, II. 454

Unconscious Counterfeit, a new farce, II. 357
Volta, his discoveries in chemistry, II. 419
Up all Night, a new opera, II. 383
Urbino, Duke of, displaced by the junta, I. 558
Ustariz, Marquis of, his death, II. 316

W.

Wagram, battle of, I. 627, 628, &c. II. 201, 533
Wakefield, accident in a coal-mine there, II. 179
Walcheren, expedition to, I. 660. State of the troops there, 679, 683. Diseases among them, 685, 686. The troops embark, II. 186; and sail, 202, 205. Return of the troops, 252, 257. Five thousand of the prisoners enter the English service, 260. Number of sick, 268. Jubilee celebrated there, 287. Proclamation against communicating with Holland, 288. Embarkation of the troops, 314. Arrive, 316.
Walter, Mr, storekeeper of the military depot, Mr Whitbread's motion on his appointment, I. 352
Ward, Mr, moves the navy estimates, I. 310. Answer to Sir C. Pole on the marine force, 312
Wardle, Col. his motion against the Duke of York, I. 109. His speech, 116. Accusation against the Lord Chancellor and the Duke of Portland, 123. Speech on bringing forward his evidence, 127. Examined, 131. Corrects his evidence, 135. Questions Mr Adam, 137. General speech on the charges against the duke, 173. Determination on the question, 221. Honours given to him, 230. Motion for retrenchment in the expenditure, 294. Quarrel with Mrs Clarke, 297. Wright's action against him, 298, II. 176. Subscription for him, I. 299. Account of him, II. 65. Westminster address to him, 103. Addresses from London, 104; Deal, 105; Belfast, 133. Letter to the people of England, 178. Trial against Mrs Clarke, 263, 310. A new trial of Wright v. Wardle granted, 292. Second trial, 295. Subscriptions for him, 311
Waterford, fire there, II. 205
Ways and means for the year, I. 302
Weavers in Lancashire, &c. their situation, II. 124
Wellesley, Marquis, sent to Spain, I. 742. His reception, 747, II. 257. His plan for provisioning the army, I. 754, 755. Made secretary of state, 792.
Wellesley, Mr Henry, sent as ambassador to Spain, I. 792. II. 311. Action against Lord Paget, 133. Divorced from his wife, 189
Wellesley, Sir Arthur, his instructions on going to Spain, I. 17. Vote of thanks to him, 84. Speech on the convention of Cintra, 43. Defends it, 45. Speech on Col. Wardle's motion, 120. Evidence on the Duke of York's improvements in the army, 170. Motion on his holding the chief secretaryship of Ireland while abroad, 317. His reply, 318. Moves the extension of the inland navigation in Ireland, 326. Speech on the board of controul, 339. Prepares to take the command in Portugal, 556. Sails for Lisbon, 694. Lands at Lisbon, 703. Marches against Soult, 704. Enters Spain, 716. Defeats the French at Talavera, 723. Raised to the peerage, 745. State of his army, 747. Prepares to retreat, 752. Letter to Lord Castlereagh, II. 238. His patent of peerage, 249. Observations on his talents, 538
Welsh, Major, storms the lines at Travancore, II. 193
West, Capt. assists in the defence of Rosas, I. 504
West India dock company, state of, II. 12
Westminster, meeting respecting Col. Wardle, II. 103
Whale, taken in the Thames, II. 97
Wheatley, J. convicted of an assault, II. 75
Whitbread, Mr, speech on the address, I. 18. On Buonaparte's overtures of peace, 26. Moves an amendment on the subject, 29. Rejected, 33. Speech on recriminating former measures, 51. Moves for Sir J. Moore's last dispatch, 61. Speeches against Mr Frere and Col. Charmilly, 102, 103. Answer to Mr Canning's speech on Colonel Wardle's motion, 125. Examines General Clavering, 167. Objects to the Duke of York's letter being copied into the journal, 172. Speech on the general question, 193—201. Speech on the meeting of general officers, 222. Further observations on the question, 224, 225. Speaks in favour of an inquiry into the disposal of offices, 235. Speech against Mr Perceval's sale of a seat to Mr Dick, 247. Against Mr Curwen's bill, 278. Speech on the budget, 303, 304. Motion on the chief secretaryship of Ireland, 317. Speech on the East India committee, 339. Speech against John Bowles, 348. Speech against placemen sitting in the House of Commons, 350. Motion on the appointment of Mr Walter as storekeeper of the military depot, 352, 353. Speech against lotteries, 359. Against the orders of council, 404

Whitby, several persons lost in the snow there, II. 26

White, H. K. his treatment by the reviewers, II. 568

Whitehaven, tempest there, II. 314

Wilberforce, Mr, speech on Col. Wardle's motion, I. 122. Objects to improper questions put to Mrs Clarke, 157. General speech on the charges, 206. Speaks in favour of Mr Curwen's bill, 260. Speech on the appointment of army chaplains, 307

Williams, Mr, discovery for hastening the growth of grapes, II. 442

Windsor, celebration of the jubilee there, II. 279

Wilson, Sir Robert, raises a legion at Oporto, I. 493. Marches to Ciudad Rodrigo, 499. Retreats after the battle of Talavera, 734

Wilson, Mr, his swift mare, II. 108

Windham, Mr, speech on the convention of Cintra, I. 45. On Sir J. Moore's campaign, 76. On the charges against the Duke of York, 207. On Lord Castlereagh's negociation respecting a seat in the House, 240. Speeches against reform, 251, 260. On Mr Curwen's inconsistency, 279. Upon the militia volunteering bill, 309. On the local militia, 310. On the Irish revenue regulation bill, 324. Speech on Lord Erskine's bill against cruelty to animals, 359

Winter's Tale, observations on, II. 394, 395

Wrench, Mr, his appearance at the Lyceum, II. 356

Wright, action against Col. Wardle, I. 298, II. 176. A new trial moved for, 292. Second trial, 295

Wright, Rachel, tried for child stealing, II. 44

Wright, Mr, his appearance at Drury-lane, II. 351

Wyborne, Mr, convicted of crim. con. II. 309

Wynne, Mr C. W. speaks against an inquiry into the disposal of offices, I. 235. On Lord Castlereagh's sale of a seat in the House, 239

Wynne, Mr W. moves the committal of General Clavering, I. 167, 168, 173, 225. Objects to the questions put to Miss Taylor, 169. General speech on the charges against the Duke of York, 204.

Y.

Yarborough, Lord, resigns his lease at Chelsea, which is granted to Colonel Gordon, I. 233

Yeo, Captain, his sucesses at Cayenne, I. 596

York, Duke of, sentiments of the nation on his reported appointment to command in Portugal, I. 4. Col. Wardle's motion against him, 109. A pamphlet said to have been written under his direction, 109, 110. Observations on his conduct, 111. His treatment of Major Hogan, 112. Transactions with Col. French, 119. Opinion of the public, 126. Annuity granted to Mrs Clarke, 135. Alterations introduced by him in the system of promotion, 139. Evidence on his improvements in the army, 169. Letter to the Speaker, 171. Resigns, 224, II. 93, 224. General opinion on the investigation, I. 227. Charges against him, II. 56

York, Miss, trial for shooting R. Coombes, II. 144. Acquitted, 184
Yorke, Mr, speech on the convention of Cintra, I. 52. On Col. Wardle's motion, 120. Explains to Col. Wardle, 127. Objects to adjourning on account of Mrs Clarke's weariness, 144. Questions the generals in the army on the improvements made in the army by the duke, 170. Defends the duke, 185
Young, Mr, his character as an actor, II. 357. Address to the audience, 358
Young, Mrs, her character as an actress, II. 391

Z.

Zante taken by the English, I. 788, II. 307
Zaragoza, the military chest of Castanos conveyed thither, I. 471. Siege of, 508. Capitulates, 519, 520. Eulogium of the junta on the city, 525. French account of the siege, II. 89
Zaragoza, Augustina, her heroism, I. 521
Zayas, Gen. repulsed by the French, I. 721
Zettau taken by the Duke of Brunswick I. 622
Zoology, new discoveries in, II. 438

END OF VOLUME II. PART II.

EDINBURGH:
Printed by James Ballantyne and Co.